Longstanding Supreme Court precedent recognizes Congress as having plenary power over immigration, giving it almost complete authority to decide whether aliens may enter or remain in the United States.

In exercising its power over immigration, Congress can make laws concerning aliens that would be unconstitutional if applied to citizens. Demore v. Kirn, 538 U.S. 510, 522 (2003)

Congress has sole authority to authorize aliens for work—the executive branch does not share such authority with Congress.
